Date*	Time*	Event
June 6		Vocal Point: Bismarck-based quartet presents a fun, inspiring program. Enjoy the best of barbershop classics with a touch of gospel. more&gt;&gt;
June 13		The T.J. Casey Show: T.J. Casey is a singer, songwriter, storyteller, humorist and entertainer. When this larger-than-life artist steps under the spotlight and starts to sing, the cowboy from his soul communicates with you...you live the song. ( website )
June 20		Pivetta Duo: Award-winning Pivetta Duo is a North Carolina based husband/wife duo (Debi, flute; Federico, piano) dedicated to involving audiences of all ages with their energetic and imaginative programming from jazz to the classics. Standing ovations across the United States reflect the enthusiasm the public shows for the Pivetta Duo. ( website )
June 27		David Meece —pianist, composer, arranger—presents his piano stylings. Much of his musical success in his Christian ministry can be credited to his widespread appeal. David's fans range from the young to the young at heart. ( website )
July 2-4		50th class reunion location for registration and dinner
Sat, July 3	7:00 pm	Merrill Piepkorn and the Radio Stars: (first of two different shows)
July 4		Merrill Piepkorn and the Radio Stars: As radio show host of Hear It Now and commentator for Prairie Public Radio in Fargo, Merrill has assembled a group of talented musicians for an amazing show to delight all ages. Their classic country selections along with Merrill's stories and exceptional harmonica playing make for a show folks don't want to miss. ( website )
Sat, July 10	8:00 pm	Big Band Reflections: Wear your dancing shoes! This Parshall-based band will take you back to the Big Band era of the '40s for a moment in time when the music of Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller was king.
July 18		The Eric Furuseth Show: Eric, a classically trained singer and entertainer, sings with several elite groups in Minot including the Minot City Opera. With an amazing voice of power and beauty and a personality to match, Eric offers a variety of songs and arias plus humorous stories from his international travels.
Wed, July 21	7:00 pm	Guitar Reflections: An evening with John Harr, classical guitarist
Sat, July 25	7:00 pm	Heavenly Harp concert: Karin and Joy gunderson, a mother-daughter musical duo known as Heavenly Harp, play harp duets, sing together and add occasional flute accompaniment. Karin also relates inspiring stories from her work as a 'harpist for hospice'. Donations accepted. ( website ) more&gt;&gt;
August 1		Beauty of Song: Beautiful voices and the 'art of singing' describe Kenneth and Devera

Bowles, tenor and soprano, who are on the music faculty at Minot State University. Both are very active in the music scene as soloists. This will be an afternoon of romantic duets and solos from the classics as well as opera greats.

August 15

Marlene and Friends: Marlene Jensen Hoirup, graduate of the Juilliard School of Music, New York City, and professional pianist and teacher, is an alumna of Stanley High School. She has appeared as soloist and chamber musician throughout Germany and the United States. Marlene's program includes classical favorites, especially Chopin, performed in celebration of his bi-centennial. Don Hoirup, baritone, and Jane Paulson, clarinet, join Marlene in this musical adventure.

August 22

GreenMan Band: GreenMan Band from Minot centers its music in traditional Celtic music of Ireland, Scotland, Wales and Brittany. The melding of these influences, some hundreds of years old but with contemporary arrangements, has created a unique sound in this Celtic band. An amazing concert filled with energy and musical surprises. (website)

Sept 26

Ring 'dem' Bells: The 'BELLievers' of Bethany Lutheran Church, Minot, and directed by Kari Files, presents a program of sacred classics arranged for handbells. This is a first for the Sibyl Center.
